REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The prior art fails to show applicant's method of placing of telephone to pre-designated phone immediately upon an off-hook condition that is implemented on an Integrated Access Device. neither does the prior art teach that IF a destination number has NOT been entered by the calling party, then the calling circuit will dial the called circuit. No obvious combination of references found would have taught one having ordinary skill in the art to make and use applicant's invention as claimed.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Creighton h Smith whose telephone number is 308-2488. The examiner can normally be reached on M-F.

If attempts to reach the examiner by telephone are unsuccessful, the examiner's
